Mr. Richard J. Kerr
Deputy Director of Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, DC 20505

Dear Mr. Kerr:

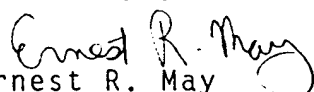

There will be a dinner meeting of the Steering Committee of the Intelligence and Policy Project on Thursday evening, April 12, and I would like very much to have you join with other members of the Committee that evening for the dinner and a discussion of the research efforts of the Project. Both Judge Webster and Dean Robert Putnam of the Kennedy School of Government will be joining us for the dinner meeting, which will be at the Conference Center of the Carnegie Endowment, 2400 N Street, N.W., at 6:00 p.m.

The dinner will be an opportunity for review of the Project, where we have been and where we intend to go. It seems a particularly good time for such a review, given the changes in the world that both intelligence and policy confront. We are preparing a short paper to use as a basis for our conversation, and I will send it to you before the meeting.

I hope that you will be free that evening and look forward to seeing you. Would you please ask a member of your staff to call Bonnie Stabile at (617) 495-1142 to let us know if you will be joining us.

With warmest regards,

Sincerely yours,

Ernest R. May
